Liaquat University of Medical and Health Sciences (LUMHS) is committed to promoting the holistic well-being of its students through a series of awareness and information sessions that begin at orientation and continue throughout their academic journey. These sessions cover a wide range of topics, with a particular focus on health and wellbeing.

As part of this initiative, a session on Sexual and Reproductive Health (SRH) was held on Friday, 26th July 2024, at the IT Hall, LUMHS.

The session aimed to:

- Educate students on the fundamentals of SRH
- Dispel myths and misconceptions
- Provide information on available SRH services and support

Expert facilitators conducted interactive discussions on key topics, including:

- Anatomy and physiology
- Prevention of Sexually Transmitted Infections (STIs)
- Mental health and overall wellbeing

This initiative reflects LUMHS's ongoing commitment to the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), particularly SDG 3 (Good Health and Well-being) and SDG 4 (Quality Education) by ensuring students have access to accurate information and the resources needed to make informed, responsible choices.
